Last reviewed: Sept 2018

1 INTRODUCTION

The governing body is required to set out a Code of Conduct for all school employees.

Staff should be aware that a failure to comply with the following Code of Conduct could result in disciplinary action including dismissal.

2 PURPOSE, SCOPE AND PRINCIPLES

A Code of Conduct is designed to give clear guidance on the standards of behaviour all school staff are expected to observe, and the school should notify staff of this code and the expectations therein. School staff are in a unique position of influence and must adhere to behaviour that sets a good example to all the pupils/students/adults within the school.

This Code of Conduct applies to:

- all staff who are employed by the school, including the Headteacher;
- all staff in units or bases that are attached to the school.

The Code of Conduct does not apply to:

- peripatetic staff who are centrally employed by the LA;
- schools meals staff employed by the LA or an external contractor;
- employees of external contractors and providers of services (e.g. contract cleaners).

(Such staff are covered by the relevant Code of Conduct of their employing body)

3 SETTING AN EXAMPLE

3.1 All staff who work in schools set examples of behaviour and conduct which can be copied by pupils/students/adults.

3.2 All staff must, therefore, demonstrate high standards of conduct in order to encourage pupils/students/adults to do the same.

- 3.3 All staff must also avoid putting themselves at risk of allegations of abusive or unprofessional conduct.
- 3.4 Please see the Staff Handbook regarding Dress Code, Health & Safety, Acceptable Internet Use, and Whistleblowing Policy.

This needs to be reported and dealt with in accordance with the appropriate school procedure. It must not be discussed outside the school, including with the pupil's/student's parent or carer, nor with colleagues in the school except with a senior member of staff with the appropriate role and authority to deal with the matter.
