

Complaints Policy

September 2023

Review date: September 2024

At Markeaton Primary School, we strive to create a friendly and safe environment which gives all children the opportunity to explore and enrich their potential. We recognise that sometimes things can go wrong, and parents/carers and members of the public may need to make a complaint they have with the school.

This policy tells you what to do if this happens.

General Principles

- This policy and its related procedures enable you to raise a complaint relating to the school or the services that it provides.
- An anonymous complaint will not be investigated unless there are exceptional circumstances.
- To allow for a proper investigation, complaints should be brought to the attention of the school as soon as possible.
- In general, the school will not consider any complaint that was raised more than 6 weeks after the event.
- All complaints should be resolved as quickly as possible.
- If a complaint is not from a parent/carer of a pupil of the school (an example being a member of the public) these should be made, in writing, directly to the Headteacher.
- All complaints will be recorded formally by the school in a central log.
- All written complaints must be made using the Complaints Form below.

Informal Stage

In most cases, a complaint will be sent to the school office or Headteacher via email. On occasion, the complainant may wish to speak face to face to explain the complaint.

Once the complaint has been received, it is hoped that most issues/concerns can be resolved informally and quickly by discussion and/or an informal meeting. These discussions and/or meetings can usually be arranged via the school office or the Headteacher at a time of convenience suitable to all parties.

All complaints will be acknowledged in writing within 3 three to five school working days. It is at the discretion of the Headteacher who will be present at any discussion and/or informal meeting if this is what the complainant would like.

If the complaint cannot be resolved during these discussions and/or informal meetings then the next formal stage can be initiated should the complainant wish to do so.

Formal Stage

This is split into three parts:

Stage 1

If the Complainant is dissatisfied after the informal stage, they, or the member of staff, can refer the matter to the Headteacher. This should be done in writing (using the Complaints Form below), as this will often make the situation clear to all involved parties.

The Headteacher will offer a meeting with the Complainant at a mutually convenient time. At the meeting, and through discussion, the Headteacher will clarify what the issues are. The hopes of what the Complainant is trying to achieve will also be discussed. Together, all parties will agree an acceptable outcome. This should be to the satisfaction of all parties involved. These should be written down and agreed by all parties so there is no misunderstanding. All parties should be given a copy of this.

If the issue is complex, the Headteacher may need to speak to other staff and pupils to investigate the complaint. This should happen within ten school days. If this timescale cannot be met, the Headteacher should inform the Complainant that this will take longer, explain the reasons for this and give a timescale for when the investigation will be completed.

Stage 2

After meeting with the Headteacher, if the complaint is not resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction, it can be referred to the Chair of Governors. This can either be in writing to the Chair at the school address, or alternatively the school can ask the Chair of Governors to contact the Complainant directly. The Headteacher can also refer the complaint to the Chair of Governors.

If the Headteacher is the subject of the complaint, the complaint should go straight to the Chair of Governors and miss out Stage 1. The Chair of Governors will ask for the complaint to be put in writing (if this has not already happened) using the Complaints Form below.

The Chair of Governors will offer to meet with the Complainant, at a mutually convenient time.

The Chair of Governors has fifteen school days to investigate the complaint. If it cannot be resolved within this time, the Chair will inform the Complainant and explain why it is taking longer. Reasons for this may be that the complaint is complex and needs more time or someone involved is absent through sickness or holidays. The Chair of Governors should, however, give a realistic timescale for when the complaint should be resolved. The Chair should inform the Complainant of when it is expected that the investigation should be completed.

The Chair of Governors may appoint a Governor to be an investigating officer to gather evidence and conduct preliminary interviews on the Chair's behalf. The investigating officer will provide a detailed report of his/her investigation of the complaint. Complainants should be given a copy of this report. It is important that the investigating officer is impartial. So whilst the investigating officer is another Governor, they may not be a member of any subsequent Complaints Committee.

Stage 3

If the complaint is still not resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction, or Chair of Governors feels that it is necessary, he/she can set up a Complaints Committee to consider the complaint. The Chair of Governors will decide if this is appropriate.

If the Chair of Governors can resolve the complaint there is no need to hold a Complaints Committee meeting. As far as possible, it is recommended that Complaints Committees are a last resort.

The Complaints Committee is made up of three members of the Governing Body. Sometimes Governors need to be brought in from other schools if school Governors have prior knowledge of the complaint.

The Complaints Committee should meet at a time convenient to all parties. The Complainant, the Headteacher, the Chair of Governors and any member of staff the complaint is about will be invited to the meeting. Any person invited can bring a friend or supporter if they wish. The Complaints Committee will consider any written material, and also give the Complainant, the Headteacher, Chair of Governors, and staff an opportunity to state their case and to question others present. The Committee will ensure that all present are treated fairly. The meeting will be minuted by the Clerk to Governors and everyone present will be given a copy of the minutes.

The Complaints Committee will give its decision, in writing, within five school days after the meeting, along with the reasons for their decision. The decision of the Complaints Committee is final.

Data Protection (UK GDPR)

Complaints relating to data protection can be made directly to the Headteacher and must be done in writing. Please use the Complaints Form below.

Markeaton Primary School is registered with the Information Commissioners Office. The registration number is Z7313141.

Any information/data collected throughout a complaints process will be retained as allowed by GDPR. This information can be found in our retention policy on our website.

Our Data Protection Officer is J.A. Walker, Solicitor – info@jawalker.co.uk

GDPR and DPA Complaints

All Staff must be aware of the complaints process. All complaints should be directed to the Headteacher. If any member of staff is aware that a person wishes to complain, they should direct the person to the school website and complaints policy and form.

The Headteacher is responsible for dealing with all complaints in line with this procedure.

The school Complaints Policy sets out the complaints process. This will be the basis for dealing with Data Protection Complaints and appeals. A written outcome will be provided.

If the school does not comply with a Subject Access Request within one month (subject to any extension), or refuses all or part of the request, written reasons will be provided, setting out the principles for the refusal.

If you feel that the school has not dealt with your matter satisfactorily you can complain to the Information Commissioner:
