English/SPAG An artefact is an object that has some significance or meaning behind it. In some cases, an artefact might even have a very important story behind it. Select five artefacts from the story you have been reading and explain what makes them significant or important. They don't all have to be a plot point in the story but should have influenced it in some way.	English/SPAG Read this story starter. Can you carry on writing a suspenseful short story? Can you include personification, alliteration and a colon? I hadn't seen the door before. It wasn't there last night. Cautiously, I turned the handle.	English/SPAG Create a fact file poster on your favourite sport or sporting star. Include as much information as you can and consider the layout of your work.	English/SPAG Education City: "Let's Eat Granny". Read and select the sentences that use commas correctly to clarify meaning. https://go.educationcity.com/content/index/32812/8/1/1/null/null/false/false/null/0 If the link above doesn't work, search for the activity above.	English/SPAG Draw the main character from a book you have recently read. Show them as a baby, middle-aged and as an older person. Underneath each picture write what you think they might be doing at that point of their life, and explain why they may be doing so; e.g. if you drew Harry Potter as a baby, he might be casting spells on his mum to feed him lots of yummy food.

Ramadan Future Family Plans

Ramadan is an important festival to Muslims. It remembers when the Muslim holy book, the Qur'an, was given to the Prophet Muhammad. During Ramadan, Muslims don't eat or drink during daylight; they spend time praying and reading the Qur'an. Ramadan is also a time when Muslims think about the poor and give money to charities that help poor people.

Ramadan ends with Eid ul-Fitr, which is a time of celebration. Services are held at the mosque and families and friends have a special meal together. During Eid ul-Fitr, Muslims wear their best clothes and give gifts.

Just as Muslims go without food and drink during Ramadan, people have had to give up lots of things during the lockdown. Muslims make special plans for the end of Ramadan. What special plans would you like to make for when lockdown ends? Use this activity to help you make plans.

You will need:

- a jar
- small pieces of paper (you can cut out the sheets below or any pieces of paper)
- jar label (below)
- ribbons or other things to decorate your jar

What to do:

- Every time you think of something you miss being able to do because of the lockdown, write it on a slip of paper. Put the piece of paper in the jar.
- At the end of the lockdown, read out all the things written on the pieces of paper. Arrange times to do all the things you couldn't do during lockdown.
