To all Parents/Carers,

Welcome back to 2025! We hope you had a fantastic break and new year 😊

It's fair to say, it's been a pretty chilly week this week with temperatures hovering around zero! Which would probably explain why I have seen so much indoor PE – like the photo in the top left. Best way to keep warm is to keep moving!

Middle left we have children in Y6 acting as mini police as part of their weekly sessions. Joanne came into class to talk about the difference between secrets and surprises. They had fun creating posters about what they had learnt!

And bottom left, some good old-fashioned measuring in the classroom – the bit I like about this photo is them working as a team 😊

In other news, we have had a few emails this week from local residents about parking. Please be respectful and vigilant in terms of where you park in the mornings. Some cars have been left across people's driveways so you can imagine the frustration this has caused. Thank you for your support on this.

And finally, in case you missed it, here is a link to the newspaper article about our Ofsted report. They didn't actually come into school or interview anyone but it was nice they took the time to say how well we had done:

Have a lovely weekend,

Mr Johnson
