Care Curiosity Determination

14.6.24

To all Parents/Carers,

Sorry there hasn't been a Weekly Word so far this half term! The good news is, there's lots more to report on!!

First and foremost, can I say a huge thank you to all parents/carers and family members who turned up in their numbers to support all of the Sports' Days this week! Despite the inclement weather (and an absolute downpour on Tuesday during the Y3/4 running races), they were a roaring success! The children were amazing, showed real determination and supported one another right throughout. Top left is one of many photos on Twitter from the different events.

Middle left, in a slight change of pace, children in Y5 and Y6 experienced a Shakespearian workshop in the upstairs hall. They got to dress up, perform and learn some more about his famous plays.

One thing that has benefitted from the up and down weather this week is our vegetable plots and raised beds. Bottom left you can see our intrepid Gardening Club getting all muddy and preparing the ground.

In other news we say farewell to Miss Herriman today who will be starting her maternity leave next week. We wish her all the happiness in the world and we look forward to seeing her new baby very soon 😊

And finally, two things, it's three weeks till the Summer Fair. If you haven't already and are prepared to do so, please can you volunteer to help the PTFA with stalls. We will be asking for book and toy donations pretty soon too, thank you in advance!

A huge congratulations to our Y5 and Y6 Girls' Football Team who won the league this year! AMAZING!!!!!! What an incredible achievement 😊

Have a lovely weekend,
Mr. Johnson
