To all Parents/Carers,

Such a jam-packed week this week, I have had to squeeze in four photos instead of three! It was hard to choose which ones made the cut!

Top left, children in Y3 and Y4 took part in immersive Anglo-Saxon and Viking workshops in the upstairs hall. They got to role-play Viking battles, sketch artefacts and explore ancient runes. As you can see, they had an absolutely brilliant time!

The next photo is of one of our former Y6 pupils from last year being interviewed by the BBC. We are so proud of him as he is helping his secondary school plan for a new British Sign Language curriculum 😊

Then we have our Y5 children getting ready for their brass concert in the hall. They have been learning how to play the trombone and the trumpet for several weeks and yesterday, in front of a packed audience, they performed six songs! There was Hot Cross Buns and then a stunning rendition of 'We will Rock You'! Well done to them all, they were ace!

The last photo is one of our Y3 children competing in a schools-wide Gymnastics competition. Accompanied by Miss Hall and Mr Campbell, they took part in floor routines and various other individual and team events. Top work Y3!!

And finally, keep an eye on the twitter feed for Y1. We have managed to get some proper bargains for more outdoor furniture for continuous provision – it's going to look fantastic!

Have a lovely weekend

Mr L. Johnson
