To all Parents/Carers,

As a huge fan of dinosaurs, the current Y5/6 topic is right up my street. They have been learning all about the influential paleontologist Mary Anning (which took them into the forest school area) and how some people tried to steal the credit for her discoveries! Outrageous!

Tomorrow, in case you missed it, is the 1st ever Markeaton Car Boot Sale (see poster above for details)! If you do want a pitch then let the office know, otherwise doors open at 9am and we would love to see as many of you there as possible! There will be hot drinks, some snacks and even an ice cream van at 10:45am – and yes, the weather is meant to be warm!

See you tomorrow!
Mr Johnson
