

Weekly Word

5/5/2023

To all Parents/Carers,

Another busy week at Markeaton – with some pretty inconsistent weather in between!

Top left, to start with, we have children in Y4 conducting their very own traffic survey by the perimeter fence at the end of the field. It's fair to say there were a lot of cars observed (that being the most popular mode of transport) and an appearance of a tractor!

Middle left, in Y6, we have the children taking part in a Horrible History quiz. And the quizmaster, of all people, was the author himself – Terry Deary! The children absolutely loved it and had a great time 😊

Bottom left (and this is one of many photos on Twitter), we have children in Y1 preparing for the Coronation Party later today. On the gate this morning it was a sea of red, white and blue! Hopefully you will join us later for the PTFA Coronation Picnic. Around about lunch time it absolutely threw it down so I am hoping that the rain is done with now and we can look forward to some sunnier weather later on.

In other news, the deadline has now passed for any feedback regarding the SAFE Haven project. As I mentioned in previous Weekly Words, the 18-month trial is coming to an end and the decision now, is whether to make it permanent. Thank you to those who got involved – we are expecting an outcome quite soon.

And finally, this is a good opportunity to wish the Y6s the very best of luck with their SATs next week. They have worked incredibly hard during the build up and we are amazingly proud of every single one of them.

Have a lovely long weekend and enjoy the coronation tomorrow if you decide to tune in!
